So Much, So Close

October is always a colorful month in Central MA so now is the time to get outdoors, enjoy the foliage and all the special events the area has to offer. Pumpkins, scarecrows and falling leaves abound, apples call to be picked, and craft fairs are around every corner. Remember, there is always something for everyone in Central MA!

No matter where you go, or what you do - Central MA has something for everyone! So Much, So Close!

Legislative Update

We sincerely thank our Senators for supporting Amendment 179 to the expanded gaming/casino bill that is currently being discussed in the Senate. This Amendment recognizes the economic impact of the tourism industry on the state's economy and increases the funds dedicated to tourism
